Bimini Drive resides within a gated community boasting charming single-family homes nestled along the waterfront. It's an ideal retreat for families and boat enthusiasts, conveniently close to various amenities like restaurants, pubs, bakeries, theaters, beaches, groceries, and healthcare services. The house features four spacious bedrooms with sturdy windows and doors, granite countertops, and quality appliances. A sizable covered patio offers serene views of the Caribbean waters and lush palm trees, complete with a cozy hammock. Solar panels help cut down on electricity costs, and the well-kept garage provides ample space for parking and storage. For added peace of mind, this property is equipped with a comprehensive security center, featuring surveillance cameras positioned around the property, allowing residents access to video footage at any time. With its blend of comfort, convenience, and security, Bimini Drive offers an unparalleled lifestyle experience in a breathtaking setting, where every moment is infused with tranquility and luxury.
