IRG Cayman Participates in Global Real Estate Conference

IRG Cayman was among attendees from 25 countries around the world

IRG - International Realty Group participated in the Leading Real Estate Companies of the World® Annual Conference, which took place February 20-26 at the Fontainebleau Miami Beach. The event was part of the Leading Real Estate Companies of the World® (LeadingRE) Conference Week, which attracted a prestigious audience of nearly 2,500 real estate professionals from 25 countries.

The conference was open exclusively to brokers, managers, marketers and relocation professionals affiliated with LeadingRE and Luxury Portfolio, a global community of real estate companies awarded membership based on rigorous standards for service and performance. Participants explored a range of topics relating to the real estate market and addressed ways to best meet the needs of today's home buyers and sellers.

Keynote speakers included George Blankenship, the innovator who master-minded Apple retail stores and later headed worldwide retail for Tesla, and William Taylor, co-founding editor of Fast Company magazine.

“As the Cayman Islands only real estate company to be part of this huge real estate global network it is extremely valuable to connect with our colleagues around the world and also stay in touch with the latest international real estate market and trends,” said Ms. Watler.

IRG is the Cayman Islands ONLY representative of Leading Real Estate Companies of the World® (www.LeadingRE.com), the largest network of premier locally-branded firms in more than 50 countries producing over one million annual home sale transactions. As a member of LeadingRE, IRG provides a quality real estate experience, global marketing reach and access to top real estate professionals in any market.
